CSNN Philosophy

The teaching philosophy of CSNN is based on providing a visionary approach to health care through natural nutrition. It is based on respect for each other and ourselves and for the earth that provides our food. It is the understanding and teaching of this philosophy that is behind the success of our school.

Academic Accommodation

CSNN does its best to accommodate students with diagnosed medical disabilities. Students must self-identify they have a diagnosed disability that requires accommodation and speak with the Branch Manager upon registration and/or upon any change in academic accommodation requirements. Please contact the Branch Manager immediately if this applies to you as we require you to provide documentation from a specialist regarding your disability.

PRIVACY POLICY

As a student, your name, address, and phone number are kept on file to serve as identification and contact information.

Your information is used to process invoices and receipts.

These files are confidential and are available only to the Branch Manager, administrative staff, Directors, Registrar, and the student. The law prohibits CSNN instructors, managers, or administrative staff from disclosing attendance or any information to anyone except the student. Information may be transferred if a student transfers to another CSNN branch or to a related program at CSNN Vancouver.

When you complete the Holistic Culinary Certificate Program, your contact information is put on a database so that CSNN can contact you.

At times CSNN may conduct surveys. The purpose of these surveys is to better serve the needs of students and to maintain the quality of the curriculum and the administration of the school. These surveys are kept on file for future reference.

There are rare instances where CSNN may collect, use, or disclose your personal information without your consent as required and permitted by law, for example 1) to collect a debt owed to us; 2) to meet government tax reporting requirements; and 3) to comply with an order made by a court.

CSNN's Web site may have links to other Internet sites owned and operated by third parties. Even though CSNN tries to link to sites that share our high respect for privacy, CSNN is not responsible for the content or the privacy practices of other organizations. We suggest you review the privacy policies of other organizations before providing any personal information. CSNN has the right to update this privacy policy from time to time.

CONFIDENTIALITY & DISCLOSURE

Absolutely no part of the content of the copyrighted publications of CSNN course material or teachers' notes, may be photocopied, adapted for teaching purposes, or shared with anyone not registered in the CSNN program.

Please be advised that the administrators of non-official CSNN Facebook groups and other social media sites do not have the means to confirm who is a CSNN student or graduate. As a result, it is unacceptable to discuss and/or share any of CSNN's materials on these unofficial sites because it could lead to a breach of CSNN's intellectual property rights.

Taking photos, video, and/or audio recordings of instructor lessons and/or any CSNN material is strictly prohibited.

Any breach of the above-mentioned restrictions will be considered a breach of confidentiality and a breach of the student's contract (student enrolment contract) and may lead to the student's dismissal from CSNN plus legal action.

At the end of the program students will be provided a feedback form for completion. Student feedback is encouraged and is a valuable evaluation tool that helps identify areas for enhancement in the program.

FIRE/EVACUATION SAFETY

In the event of a fire alarm or if the building needs to be evacuated, students must stay with their class and the instructor will lead students out of the building (either through the front door, if safe, or through the back of the property) to the muster station, which is the corner of West Broadway & Yew Street where students are to remain until told it is safe to re-enter the building. The instructor will take attendance at the muster station to confirm everyone is accounted for so students must stay with their class. No student (or employee) will re-enter the school until the fire officials have authorized re-entry.

RESPECTFUL AND FAIR TREATMENT OF STUDENTS POLICY

CSNN is committed to providing a learning environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. CSNN recognizes their responsibility to prevent and discourage behaviours that interfere with the rights of students and employees to learn and work in an atmosphere of equal opportunity that is free from harassment and discrimination.

A breach of appropriate conduct by a student will be dealt with by the Branch Manager and the incident will be documented in the student's file. At the Branch Manager's sole discretion, if the incident is of a serious nature, the student may have their studies put on hold until a final decision is made to dismiss the student.

There will be zero tolerance for discrimination and harassment. Violations will result in disciplinary action or dismissal from the school.

Students and instructors who witness harassment and/or discrimination are asked to report the incident to administration or the Branch Manager.

Due Respect

Students are expected to treat other students, instructors, and CSNN staff with the same courtesy and respect with which they expect to be treated. Failure to display proper respect and appropriate behaviour may result in disciplinary action and possible dismissal from CSNN.

CSNN is a drug and alcohol-free school. The use/consumption of drugs and alcohol on school property is strictly prohibited. Being under the influence during class times, even if consumed offsite, is also strictly prohibited and may result in disciplinary action and possible dismissal from CSNN.

Please note that defamation of CSNN or CSNN staff will be dealt with under CSNN's Due Respect policy and may be grounds for immediate dismissal and legal action.

Discrimination

Discrimination means any action or behaviour that results in unfavourable treatment based on disability, race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, marital status, receipt of public assistance, or record of provincial or pardoned federal offenses.

Systemic discrimination includes policies, practices, procedures, actions or inactions that appear neutral, but have an adverse impact associated with one of the prohibited grounds.

At the discretion of the Branch Manager, a student found to be practicing, participating, or supporting any acts of discrimination may be subject to dismissal.

At the discretion of the Branch Manager, a student found to be practicing, participating, or supporting any acts of harassment may be subject to dismissal.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Disturbances

Cell phones must be turned off (not on vibrate mode) and no text messaging is permitted during class. No recording devices or laptops are permitted in the classroom. Use of electronic devices by the student during class is considered a disturbance.

Misrepresentation

As a student of the Holistic Culinary Certificate Program, it is unethical and against CSNN's Code of Ethics to misrepresent yourself as a graduate of CSNN's Natural Nutrition Diploma Program, which graduates receive the designation of Registered Holistic Nutritionist™.

Facebook Groups & Social Media

Even though CSNN acknowledges the rights of students to create Facebook groups and other forms of social media, students do not have the right to use any of CSNN's trademarks in the identification and description of these private social media sites, as CSNN's trademarks are exclusive to its official school social media sites.

Additionally, students do not have the right to share CSNN's intellectual property on any non-CSNN social media site. CSNN's intellectual property includes, but is not limited to, curriculum outlines, instructor notes, workbooks, handbooks, and testing.

Students caught sharing CSNN's intellectual property on a non-CSNN site will be dismissed due to breach of confidentiality and will be subject to legal action.
