PROGRAM OUTLINE

Career Occupation: CSNN offers a comprehensive program in natural nutrition qualifying graduates for the professional designation Registered Holistic Nutrition™ (R.H.N.). CSNN's holistic approach to natural nutrition provides progressive, hands-on education geared towards achieving optimal health and a lasting career to work in private practice or with other health care professionals to institute proactive health care programs. Graduates have found career opportunities in a variety of sectors including: food industry, natural health centres and spas, fitness centres, sports training centres, chiropractic clinics, health food stores, teaching and education, wellness centres, medical clinics, administration, conference and retreat centres, consulting services, seniors' and retirement homes, naturopathic clinics, and writing books and articles.

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this program the successful student will have a comprehensive overview of the field of holistic nutrition as it relates to whole food nutrition, science, the body-mind-spirit connection, and the environment and competent to educate, guide, and support clients to make empowered health supportive sustainable changes. Students will be able to support the progress of their client's health goals by creating an individualized wellness program which includes the use of whole, nutrient-dense foods; menu plans; natural source supplements, and sustainable lifestyle modifications through:

- i. course work that fosters competence in understanding the role of holistic nutrition
- ii. case study work to create and implement individualized health supportive protocols

Methods of Evaluation: Students are evaluated within each of the 18 courses of the program, which may include a combination of a quiz, test, presentation, in-class demonstration, and/or a research project. Throughout the program students submit case studies which are marked using rubrics which reflect the expectations at the respective points in the program. At the end of the program students write a cumulative exam set by CSNN Head Office, which includes true/false, multiple choice, short answer essay questions, and written case studies.

Completion Requirements: To graduate a student must have an overall average of 80% and have completed the following requirements, which are weighted as follows:

- 45% 18 courses in program
- 30% final written exam
- 25% case studies
- Body-Mind-Spirit Book Report
- Corequisite Classes: attend 75 hours (minimum) of the 93 hours of corequisite classes (including 18 hours of Case Study corequisites, which must include Case Study: Follow-Up Visit)

A student's overall average is calculated using a formula with a weighted scale that takes into consideration the amount of hours of each course. All students must meet the above requirements. Prior to writing the final written exam, students must have no outstanding payments (e.g. tuition, textbooks).

Students are expected to finish all requirements within two years, but have a maximum of three years to complete the program or may be subject to new requirements, including course upgrades, additional tuition, and administration fees.

Homework Hours: Students can expect to spend approximately 750 hours outside of the classroom on work assignments, case studies, and class preparation.

REFUND POLICY

1. If the institution receives tuition from the student, or a person on behalf of the student, the institution will refund the student, or the person who paid on behalf of the student, the tuition that was paid in relation to the program in which the student is enrolled if:
 - (a) the institution receives a notice of withdrawal from the student no later than seven days after the effective contract date and before the contract start date;
 - (b) the student, or the student's parent or legal guardian, signs the student enrolment contract seven days or less before the contract start date and the institution receives a notice of withdrawal from the student between the date the student, or the student's parent or legal guardian, signed the student enrolment contract and the contract start date; or
 - (c) if applicable, the student does not attend a work experience component and the institution does not provide all of the hours of instruction of the work experience component within 30 days of the contract end date.
2. The institution will refund the tuition for the program and all related fees paid by the student or a person on behalf of the student enrolled in the program if the student is enrolled in the program without having met the admission requirements and did not misrepresent his or her knowledge or skills when applying for admission.
3. If a student does not attend any of the first 30% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term, the institution may retain up to 50% of the tuition paid under the student enrolment contract unless the program is provided solely through distance education.
4. Unless the program is provided solely through distance education, if the institution receives a notice of withdrawal from a student:
 - (a) more than seven days after the effective contract date and
 - i. at least 30 days before the contract start date, the institution may retain up to 10% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract, to a maximum of $1,000.
 - ii. less than 30 days before the contract start date, the institution may retain up to 20% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract, to a maximum of $1,300.
 - (b) after the contract start date
 - i. and up to and including 10% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 30% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
 - ii. and after 10% but before 30% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 50% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
5. Unless the program is provided solely through distance education, if the institution provides a notice of dismissal to a student and the date the institution delivers the notice to the student is:
 - (a) equal to or before 10% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 30% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
 - (b) after 10% but before 30% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term have been provided, the institution may retain up to 50% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
6. If the institution provides the program solely through distance education and the institution receives a student's notice of withdrawal or the institution delivers a notice of dismissal to the student and:
 - (a) the student has completed and received an evaluation of his or her performance for up to 30% of the hours of instruction to be provided during the contract term, the institution may retain up to 30% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract, or
 - (b) the student has completed and received an evaluation of his or her performance for more than 30% but less than 50% of the program, the institution may retain up to 50% of the tuition due under the student enrolment contract.
7. The institution will refund fees charged for course materials paid for but not received if the student provides a notice of withdrawal to the institution or the institution provides a notice of dismissal to the student.
8. Refunds required under this policy will be paid to the student, or a person who paid the tuition or fees on behalf of the student, within 30 days:
 - (a) of the date the institution receives a student's notice of withdrawal,
 - (b) of the date the institution provides a notice of dismissal to the student,
 - (c) of the date that the registrar provides notice to the institution that the institution is not complying with section 1(c) or 2 of this policy, or
 - (d) after the first 30% of the hours of instruction if section 3 of this policy applies.
9. If an international student delivers a copy of a refusal of a study permit to the institution, sections 1(a), 1(b), 4, 7, and 8 of this policy apply as if the copy of the refusal were a notice of withdrawal, unless:
 - (a) the international student requests an additional letter of acceptance for the same program that was the subject of the refusal of a study permit, or
 - (b) the program is provided solely through distance education.

Refund Clarification: The institution will not refund the Archiving Fee after the program start date or Interest Fee after the first tuition payment. If a refund is due and the student has paid for but not received textbooks from the institution, the institution will refund the fees charged for these items.
