PROGRAM OUTLINE

Admission Requirement: None

Program Description: Cooking classes in whole and natural foods nutrition taught by a certified chef and Registered Holistic Nutritionist™ in a state-of-the-art demonstration kitchen. Each class focuses on an element of a whole foods diet with recipes, tasting, hands-on learning, nutrition information, lecture, and demonstration.

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of the Holistic Culinary Certificate, the successful student will have the practical skills to prepare healthy and nutritious food, including: essentials of food safety; proper temperatures for cooking, cooling, storing and reheating food; basic knife skills; optimal preparation of grains and legumes; soaking, sprouting, and fermenting beans, nuts, grains, and seeds; incorporating probiotic and enzyme-rich foods and beverages into the diet; identify, prepare, and cook a wide variety of plants; benefits of eating locally and seasonally; techniques for raw food preparation; healthy alternatives and substitutions for common allergenic and trigger foods; alternative baking to accommodate grain-free, gluten-free, and vegan diets; preparation of healthy broths; cooking techniques using herbs and spices.

Method of Evaluation: Participation

Completion Requirements: To receive a completion certificate, a student must attend all classes. Students are expected to be on time and stay for the full duration of the class. If a student misses a class, they may retake the class, subject to availability, and pay any applicable fees.

Program Organization: Ten, 3-hour cooking classes
